

COUNTY PARKS

Frequent park users can save money with an annual park pass, good at Cullaby Lake, Carnahan and John Day parks. Annual passes provide unlimited access to these parks throughout the calendar year.

The cost is $25 for the first vehicle and two additional passes can be purchased at $5 each for vehicles owned by the same person or family.

To purchase an annual pass by mail, please complete the Park Pass form below and mail in with payment. Park passes can also be purchased in person at the Clatsop County Clerk's Office, 820 Exchange Street, second floor, Astoria.

Come
PLAY
With Us!

Your Name: _____

Mailing Address: _____

City: _____ State: _____ Zip: _____

Vehicle #1: License _____ State _____

Year _____ Make _____

Pass # (leave blank, for office use) _____

Vehicle #2: License _____ State _____

Year _____ Make _____

Pass # (leave blank, for office use) _____

Vehicle #3: License _____ State _____

Year _____ Make _____

Pass # (leave blank, for office use) _____

Your Guide to
Clatsop County Parks
and Recreational Areas

Clatsop County Parks Location Map

WELCOME TO CLATSOP COUNTY PARKS & RECREATION AREAS

We invite you to tour Clatsop County's beautiful parks and recreational areas.

The County owns and operates 11 County Parks with four boat launches comprising 570 acres. There are also several other recreational areas and other public lands open to recreation within the County. These sites offer lake and river access, swimming areas, boating, fishing, water skiing, picnicking, hiking and wildlife observation.

We hope you will enlarge your journey with a personal visit to the many parks, open spaces and trails in Clatsop County. It's a great way to experience our community and refresh your spirit.

Clatsop County Parks

1100 Olney Ave.

Astoria, OR 97103

(503) 325-9306

Cullaby Lake Reservation Line

(503) 338-3740

parks@co.clatsop.or.us

www.co.clatsop.or.us

Big Creek Park, 36 acres in Knappa area. Baseball field, public access to Big Creek fishery and open space recreation. No facilities.

Carnahan Park *

30 acres at north end of Cullaby Lake. Passive lake sports and day-use activities. No facilities. Day-use fee $3 per vehicle, May-September.

Cullaby Lake Park*, 165 acres off U.S. Highway 101 between Warrenton and Gearhart. Public access to lake (boat launch and docks), flush restroom, picnic shelters, barbecue pits, horseshoe pits, volleyball pit, play areas, fishing, swimming, nature observation (beavers, bald eagles, deer and waterfowl). A 1.5-mile wetlands interpretative trail for hikers and bicyclists with handicapped accessible viewing platform. Lindgren cabin Finnish-American heritage site. To reserve picnic shelters, phone (503)338-3740. Day-use fee $3 per vehicle.

David Douglas Park, U.S. Highway 26 13 miles east of Seaside. 64 acres of "old-growth" forest with sub-alpine fir. Open space recreation. Natural area; no facilities.

Kloutchy Creek Park, on U.S. Highway 26 about 2.5 miles east of U.S. Highway 101. Site of Oregon's first State Heritage Tree Site and remains of the largest tree in Oregon and the largest Sitka Spruce in the United States. Access to Necanicum River and to remnant coastal temperate rainforest. Facilities include chemical toilets and trash receptacle.

Lee Wooden Fishhawk Falls Park, located on Oregon Highway 202 25 miles east of Astoria. 55 acres passive inland forest recreation, trail with footbridge to Fishhawk Falls. Natural area; no facilities.

Nehalem Park, also known as Red Bluff. Located on U.S. Highway 26 about a half-mile east of Elsie. 50 acres "old-growth" forest. Natural area; no facilities.

North Fork Nehalem Park, Oregon Highway 53 at Oregon Department of Fish and Wildlife fish hatchery. Three acres of prime steelhead fishing access on North Fork of Nehalem River. Natural area; no facilities.

Sigfridson County Park, on Oregon Highway 202 one mile east of Olney. 64 acres day-use recreation. Public access to Klaskanine River. Natural area; no facilities.

Smith Lake Park, 2.5 wooded acres on west side of lake on Smith Lake Road, off Ridge Road. Natural area, foot path. No county maintenance.

BOATING FACILITIES:

Carnahan Lake,* graveled boat ramp to Cullaby Lake. Day-use fee $3 per vehicle during summer season.

Cullaby Lake,* off U.S. Highway 101 between Warrenton and Gearhart. Access to lake (boat launch and docks). Day-use fee $3 per vehicle.

John Day Park, on U.S. Highway 30 just east of Astoria. Boat launch to Columbia River, flush restrooms and landscaped entryway. Day-use fee $3 per vehicle.

Westport, one-half mile north of Westport. Boat launch to Columbia River. Chemical toilet.

PUBLIC LANDS:

Smith Lake, unimproved launch on Smith Lake Road for canoes, small boats. No county maintenance.

Sunset Lake, picnicking, boat ramp, public land. No county maintenance.

Lewis and Clark River, on Lewis and Clark Road near Logan Road, south of Astoria. Unimproved launch. No county maintenance.