Due to a National Weather Service Portland forecast for freezing rain, Clatsop County will close county office buildings to the public Tuesday, Jan. 16.

“Our staff will still be available to provide assistance, however, we are encouraging the public to avoid travel as conditions remain hazardous,” said Don Bohn, Clatsop County Manager.

While offices are closed to the public, county services will still be available by phone or email through 5 p.m. Regular business hours will resume Wednesday, Jan. 17.
