Course:

Maturing Public-Private Partnerships Workshop

Date:

August 16-18, 2016

Location:

Lynnwood, WA

Course Description:

Developed and delivered by the Mid-Atlantic Center for Emergency Management at Frederick Community College, this three day Department of Homeland Security certified instructional workshop provides participants with innovative techniques and integrated strategies in order to bolster societal security, resilience, and preparedness in the face of the unexpected. The workshop will:

- Provide lessons learned and training tools for building strong public-private partnerships.
- Promote collaboration, coordination, and communication efforts between government and private sector partners.
- Increase the effectiveness of emergency management and homeland security efforts in the public and private sectors by increasing all partners' understanding of each other's capabilities and preparedness efforts.
- Identify the legal structures involved in establishing non-contractual relationships with the private sector.
- Develop a personalized process model for the design, implementation, administration, sustainment, and evaluation of emergency management public-private partnerships.

Target Audience:

This course is for Federal departments and agencies, including sector-specific agencies, as well as state, local, tribal, and territorial governments who have a likelihood of collaborating on public-private partnership efforts.

Funding:

Tuition is free for those accepted; there are no travel/salary stipends available for this offering and all incurred costs are the responsibility of the attendee or sending organization.
